Making Connections

ULA CSRT/YART Fall Workshop

Park City Library
1255 Park Avenue
Park City, UT

October 1, 2010

"If librarianship is the connecting of people to ideas - and I believe that is the truest definition of what we do - it is crucial to remember that we must keep and make available, not just good ideas and noble ideas, but bad ideas, silly ideas, and yes, even dangerous or wicked ideas."

(Graceanne A. Decandido, Chicago Tribune interview,
18 July 1999)

Utah Library Association

Workshop Schedule

9:30-10:00 am—Registration

10:00-11:00 am—Keynote Address

Radical Reads for 21st Century Radical Readers.
Why today's controversial titles are valuable, and how to purchase, use and defend them.

Speaker: Dr. Joni Richards Bodart

Internationally known as an author, lecturer, and workshop leader on book talking and young adult literature and services, Joni Richards Bodart has been active in the ALA Young Adult Library Services Association since the 1970s, when she was a young adult librarian in northern California.

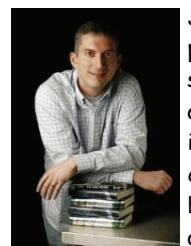

She also works as a consultant and is the author of several books, including Radical Reads: 101 YA Novels on the Edge.

11:00-11:15 am—Break

11:15-12:15 pm—Author Address

Speaker: James Dashner

James Dashner still can't believe people will pay him for doing something he loves. He was born and raised in Georgia but now lives in Utah with his wife and four children. He has written several books including The Maze Runner and The Blade of Shattered Hope.

12:15-1:15 pm—Lunch

Lunch will be provided. Authors will be available to sign books.

1:15-2:15 pm—Breakout Session I

CSRT: Tips & Techniques from the Book Talker's Bag of Tricks—Dr. Joni Bodart
A miscellany for all, beginners and experts alike.

YART: Managing Teen Behavior—Carrie Rogers-Whitehead & Robin Chalhoub. In this program we teach why and how our language and behavior influences teen behavior. Learn about "gender speak" and how the differences between how men and women talk influence their authority. Also, delve deep inside the teen brain into why teens behave the way they do.

2:15-2:30 pm—Break

2:30-3:30 pm—Breakout Session II

CSRT: Make the Connection: Bringing School and Public Libraries Together—Panel Presentation.
Ever wondered how to get the public library to help with library orientation or to do book talks? Ever wanted to get your foot in the door at your local school, but didn't know how? Never fear! With the help of our panel of librarians, this session will give you the opportunity to collaborate with other librarians and learn the tricks of the trade others have used to connect with their counterparts.

YART: Reading and Growing: The Librarian as a Developmental Specialist—Dr. Joni Bodart. Why children and teens need literature and how it can help them grow to their fullest potential.

3:30-3:45 pm—Break

3:45-4:45 pm—Breakout Session III

CSRT: Zentangle: Anything Is Possible, One Stroke at a Time—Melinda Barlow. Zentangle is an easy to learn method of creating beautiful images from repetitive patterns and is a fascinating new art form that is fun and relaxing. It also increases focus and creativity.

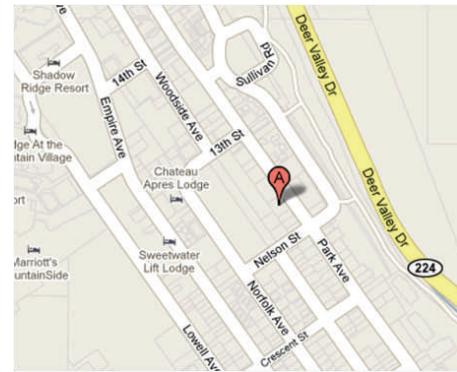

YART: A to Zine—Julie Bartel. Zines (pronounced zeens) are the DIY response to glossy corporate periodicals. Librarian and author Julie Bartel is the architect behind the Salt Lake City Library's innovative zine collection. Learn how to incorporate zines into your collection as well as provide zine making programs and workshops for your patrons.

2010 Fall Workshop:

Making Connections

Libraries are all about "Making Connections"- connecting the right book with the right reader, connecting with the community, connecting with kids in today's world, even connecting with your own inner creativity. The Children's Services Round Table and Young Adult Round Table want to help you make those connections at our 4th annual Fall Workshop. Dr. Joni Bodart, author of Booktalk! and Radical Reads 2: Working with the Newest Edgy Titles for Teens, will be our keynote speaker. Come connect with us on Friday, October 1st at the Park City Library.
